Andrew Walter Ligon
 died March 24th 1906

Franklin, Tenn.

Please allow us through the Advocate, to announce the death of our beloved brother and neighbor, Peyton F. Ligon at his residence in Wilson county, Tenn., on the 22nd day of December 1878, of pneumonia. He had excellent medical aid and his neighbors acted nobly in waiting on him day and night with true brotherly love rendering him every possible attention, his devoted wife was taken sick in the same room then removed to another, and was prostrated for several days before his death and was only able to leave her sick-bed and be carried to his dying side. Bro. Ligon was born March the 1st, 1833, and was baptized into Christ in 1850 and united with the church at Mt. View; was married to sister Ellen Eskew in August 1854. Bro. Ligon was well known in Wilson county, and had a great many friends. He was a kind husband and father, and his death will be a great loss to the neighborhood in which he lived. He bore his suffering with Christian fortitude, never complaining and before his death he called his sons to his side and exhorted them to be good boys and prepare to meet him in the better land. He leaves a Christian wife and several children, the two eldest being members of the Christian church, to mourn their loss.

Weep not dear ones he's gone before,
 Prepare to meet him on Canaan's shore.

Mt. View, Wilson county, Tenn.
