SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The American Association of University Women, Tennessee Division Records, containing approximately 225 items, span the period 1946-1993. The collection is composed of a constitution and bylaws, correspondence, financial documents, lists of membership, minutes of executive and general meetings, publications, scrapbooks, and several miscellaneous items.

Although the correspondence comprises only a small portion of the collection, of particular interest are two letters of resignation in the early 1950s by members due to the proposal approved at the national meeting of the A. A. U. W. to admit African American women into membership of the branches of the A. A. U. W. (Box 1, Folder 10).

Scrapbooks make up a large part of the A. A. U. W. records. Assembled by various historians of the Nashville Branch, the items in the scrapbooks reflect the interest of the individual historian of the time period recorded. The balance of the collection consists of A. A. U. W. newsletters, Tennessee Division Bulletins, A. A. U. W. Journals, clippings (business meetings of the Nashville Branch and activities of members, A. A. U. W. national conventions, obituaries, etc.), Tennessee Division membership lists, photographs, and directories of the Nashville Branch of the A. A. U. W.

The audio recording, which presents the historical highlights of the A. A. U. W. between 1881-1981, is housed in the vault of the Tennessee State Library and Archives.
