INTRODUCTION

The Records of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities (APVA), 1904-1970, consists of seven volumes including three scrapbooks consisting of clippings, correspondence, photographs, programs, membership lists, meeting minutes, and a genealogical list of the Virginia ancestry of the Nashville members of the APVA. Also included is a membership book of the Nashville branch (January 1904-December 1928); minute book (1943-1965), supplement to Scrapbook III (1959-1965), and Scrapbook IV (1947-1970).

The collection occupies 1.78 linear feet of shelf space and numbers seven (7) volumes. There are no restrictions on the collection, and single photocopies of unpublished materials may be made for individual or scholarly purposes.
