INTRODUCTION

The Balch Family Papers, 1780-1996, is centered around items collected by the Eugene Jerome Balch Family and primarily focuses on the Balch, Windrow, Espey, Hembree, Covington, and Hawkins Families. The Balch Family Papers are a gift of Anita Coursey of Hermitage, Tennessee.

The materials in this collection measure 5 linear feet of shelf space. There are approximately 1770 items and 15 volumes included in this collection. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Balch Family Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Balch Family

Eugene Jerome Balch, nicknamed Tootie, was born October 9, 1920 and died November 20, 2001. He was the son of Robert Dorman Balch, Sr. and Maggie Wade Balch. He served in the United States Air Force and taught at the Bordeaux School in Nashville, Tennessee, for many years. He married Mary Mourning Windrow on March 27, 1959.

Mary Mourning Windrow (wife of Eugene Jerome Balch) was born May 24, 1929 and died November 29, 2000. She was the daughter of James Grigg Windrow (son of James Travis Windrow and Mary Glenn Windrow) and Mary Mourning Hembree Windrow (daughter of A. J. Hembree and Mourning T. Hembree). She attended David Lipscomb and the George Peabody College for Teachers. She taught at Glenview Elementary School in Nashville, Tennessee, for several years.

Nannie Mae Windrow (wife of Ben King Espey) was born October 22, 1898 and died June 26, 1996. She was the daughter of James Travis Windrow and Mary Glenn Windrow. She married Ben King Espey on December 14, 1922. They had one son, Ben Clay Espey. Mrs. Espey was a charter member of the Robert Cooke Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and served as regent of that chapter for several years. Mrs. Espey was also a member of the Old Hickory Nickajack Chapter United States Daughters of 1812, the Virginia Association, the Ladies Hermitage Association and the Vanderbilt Aid.

Ben Clay Espey was born Jan. 28, 1924 and died April 15, 1944. He was the son of Ben King Espey and Nannie Mae Windrow Espey. At the age of 16, he received his private pilot's license. He was a member of McKendree Methodist Church and attended Duncan Preparatory School. After his graduation from Duncan Preparatory School in 1940, he attended the University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee. While attending the University of the South at Sewanee, he received the Algernon Sydney Sullivan scholarship and was a member of the Beta Theta chapter of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, the German club and the golf club. During his junior year (1942) at the University of the South, he volunteered as an aviation cadet and in December of 1942, he was called into active duty. He was stationed for a time in both North Africa and Southern Italy. While stationed in Italy, he was the cartoonist for the 15th Air Force's paper and fashioned the character "Sir Donald McAce". He served in combat service with the 15th Air Force and participated in air offensives over the Balkans, Austria, Germany, Romania and Italy. He was killed on April 15, 1944 while returning from a bombing mission over the Ploesti oil fields in Romania. At the time of his death, he was working as a tail gunner on a B-17 bomber, Flying Fortress, and was attacked by German fighter planes. Sgt. Espey's parachute was seen, by the crew members of other aircraft participating in the mission, falling toward the front of his plane. It was thought for a time that he might have survived the attack and was listed as missing in action. On May 20, 1944, the War Department notified his parents that he had actually been killed during the confrontation with the German fighter planes. His remains were found and returned to Tennessee in 1950. His funeral and burial took place on March 23, 1950. He is buried in Woodlawn Memorial Park in Nashville, Tennessee. He received several medals and honors including the Air Corps Citation, the Purple Heart, a Presidential Citation, and the Air Medal.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Balch Family Papers, containing approximately 1770 items and 15 volumes, spans the period 1780-1996. The collection is composed of assorted bank statements, blueprints, certificates, correspondence, contracts, ephemera, estate papers, genealogical information, magazine articles, memorial items, military service records, newspaper clippings, photograph negatives, photographs, and religious items. A large portion of this collection relates to the Balch, Windrow, Espey, Hembree, Covington, and Hawkins Families. The arrangement of items is alphabetical with the exception of the Bibles, photographs, negatives, and blueprints which have been placed, in separate boxes, at the end of the collection.

The bank accounts, located in folders 1-5 of box 1, are a compilation of various deposit receipts and checks for Citizens Bank and Trust Co., Commerce Union Bank, Stones River Bank and Trust Co., First National Bank, Murfreesboro Bank and Trust Co., and Rutherford County State Bank. They span the years 1919-1927.

The birth announcements, located in folder 6 of box 1, are for John Clay Thornton, Jr. (dated 1979) and Kate Ida Williams (dated 1974).

The certificates, located in folders 7 and 8 of box 1, are from the Al Menah Shriner's Temple and the American Red Cross. The certificate from the Al Menah Shriner's Temple is for Eugene Jerome Balch and is dated, 1952. The two American Red Cross certificates are for Mrs. R. D. Balch (Maggie Wade Balch).

The correspondence, located in folders 9-21 of box 1 and folders 1-13 of box 2, is centered around assorted letters written by or addressed to various members of the Espey family, Eugene J. Balch, various members of the J. G. Windrow family, Maggie Wade Balch, Mary Babb, Mrs. C. E. Dyer, Mike Hunter, Mary Mourning Hembree Windrow, Mourning T. Hembree, Nancy Windrow, Robert D. Balch, Jr., and Robert D. Balch, Sr. It should be noted that this correspondence contains several letters to Eugene J. Balch from someone named Betty who Mr. Balch was apparently engaged to prior to marrying Mary Windrow.

The Daughters of the American Revolution materials, located in folder 14 of box 2, are centered around the Robert Cooke Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. These materials contain an assortment of items including membership applications, certificates, and recommendation letters.

The death certificates, located in folder 15 of box 2, are for Robert Dorman Balch, Sr. (dated 1978) and James Travis Windrow (dated 1941).

The ephemera, located in folder 16 of box 2, are a vast collection of tickets, ribbons, pamphlets and patches. There are several items of note found in the ephemera folder. One item of note is a Boy's Hobby Fair second place ribbon from Nashville, Tennessee, dated, 1937. A second item of note is the William H. Door's Carnival of Beauty pamphlet. This pamphlet is a catalog of burlesque films by William H. Door productions that could be purchased in 8mm or 16mm films. A third item of note is a Pocket Check List of Common War Gases. This check list was provided by the Foster and Parkes Company of Nashville, Tennessee, and details different war gasses, their effects, and first aid treatments. Another interesting item in the ephemera folder is a World War II 15th Army Air Force Winged Star Bullion patch that has the number 15 above a winged star. This patch is believed to have belonged to Ben Clay Espey. The last item of note in the ephemera folder is a pamphlet regarding Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Nashville, Tennessee.

The estate papers, located in folder 1 of box 3, contain various items regarding estate settlement for the estates of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hembree. Also included in the estate papers folder is Mrs. Mary M. Windrow's will dated, July 15, 1919.

The farm contract, located in folder 2 of box 3, is a lease contract between Mae Windrow Espey, owner of the Espey Farm, and Ted Young, the man leasing the Espey Farm.

The genealogy, located in folders 3-6 of box 3, contain various genealogical information collected by Mae Windrow Espey and Mary Windrow Balch on the Covington family, Espey family, Hawkins family, Windrow family, and related families.

The house construction and upkeep records, located in folder 7 of box 3, contain detailed information, bills, receipts and correspondence regarding the construction and upkeep of Mae Windrow Espey's home. The blueprints for this house may be found in box 6 of this collection.

The insurance paperwork, located in folder 8 of box 3, contains two insurance policies for Robert Dorman Balch, Jr. and a War Risk Insurance certificate for James Grigg Windrow.

The invitations, located in folder 9 of box 3, are for various weddings, anniversaries, and the dedication of Sewart Air Force Base in Smyrna, Tennessee.

The magazine articles, located in folder 10 of box 3, contain articles about Dick Brackett (also known as Bozo the Clown) and United States flag display etiquette.

The memorial items, located in folder 11 of box 3, contain various bookmarks, funeral register books, and funeral programs. The memorial items are for Zilpha Windrow Moon, John Vogel, Ruth Ann Stieben, John R. Moon, Jr., Ben King Espey, James Grigg Windrow, Ben Clay Espey, Nora McCarthy Rooney, Mourning T. Hembree and A. J. Hembree.

The military service records, located in folder 12 of box 3, contain various military service records for Eugene Jerome Balch.

The newspaper clippings, located in folders 13-17 of box 3 and folders 1-2 of box 4, contain newspaper articles regarding Sergeant Ben Clay Espey, Daughters of the American Revolution, military issues, obituaries, the renaming of the Smyrna Air Base, various current events and various society events. The obituaries, located in folder 17 of box 3, contain obituaries for Mrs. Norma Elizabeth Hinkle, George L. Balch, Clara Mai Balch (Mrs. Henry T. Balch), William Edgar Overall, Mrs. Zilpha Windrow Moon, Sam N. Overall, Mrs. Lourene Vaughn, Mrs. Cora Alice Maxwell, Mrs. Kathleen Hembree, Mrs. Millie Sue Williams Massie, Wendell Schetter Cooke, Mrs. Annetta Balch, Dr. Sam Caperton Cowan, Dr. Jere W. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Eura Pyle Welch, John Eldridge Windrow, Edward Kaeser, Sr., James Grigg Windrow, Mrs. Ida Overall, William

Thomas Phillips, Miss Katherine A. Monohan, Thomas (Jack) Wade, Mrs. Mary Wade Babb, James T. Windrow, Harry Babb, Eugene Cyrus, Victoria Wade Maddox, Mrs. Lizzie Annie Simmons Vogel and Professor Marvin T. Duncan. The society news, located in folder 2 of box 4, contains wedding and engagement announcements for Nancy Glenn Windrow, Nancy Glenna Thornton, Gary John Alber, Mary Mourning Windrow, Eugene Jerome Balch, Bess Seaborn Cox, Robert D. Balch, Jr., Marjorie Grace Welch, James Cooper Wood, Maggie Belle Wade, Robert D. Balch, Sr., Louise Windrow and George H. Waters.

The newspapers, located in folders 3-5 of box 4, contain the October 31, 1961 issue of the North Star, the November 1979 and January 1980 issues of The Lipscomb News and a section of the May 25, 1950 issue of The Peabody. The October 31, 1961 issue of the North Star contains an article regarding Maggie Wade Balch (Mrs. Robert D. Balch, Sr.), who was the cafeteria superintendent for North High School in Nashville, Tennessee.

The postcards, located in folder 6 of box 4, contain postcards from the Hotel Buena Vista and Cottages in Biloxi, Mississippi, the Big Spring in Huntsville, Alabama, the Schwaben-hof in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Jack Daniel's Distillery in Lynchburg, Tennessee. There are three postcards from the Jack Daniel's Distillery. The postcards are of the Jack Daniel's Fire Engine, the Jack Daniel's Statue and Springs and of a man making charcoal.

The receipts, located in folder 7 of box 4, contain receipts collected by the Hembree, Windrow, and Balch families.

The religious items, located in folder 8 of box 4, contain an assortment of church bulletins, church directories, Sunday School certificates, bookmarks and religious writings. Two items of note, found within the religious items, are a watercolor bookmark and a Sunday School certificate for Ben Clay Espey.

The school records, located in folder 9 of box 4, contain grade cards for Mary Mourning Windrow Balch (Mrs. Eugene Jerome Balch). The grade cards cover most of her high school and college careers. She attended Smyrna High School in Smyrna, Tennessee, David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tennessee, and the George Peabody College for Teachers.

The school work, located in folders 10 and 11 of box 4, contains the school work of Mary Mourning Windrow Balch (Mrs. Eugene Jerome Balch) and Ben Clay Espey. It should be noted that the school work of Ben Clay Espey, located in folder 11 of box 4, contains various artistic drawings. These drawings are significant due to the fact that while stationed in Italy during World War II, Ben Clay Espey was a cartoonist for the paper published by the 15th air force and created the character "Sir Donald McAce" which was used in propaganda materials by the North Africans and Italians.

The scrapbook, located in folder 12 of box 4, was created by Mae Windrow Espey. Mrs. Espey was the regent of the Robert Cooke Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for several years and the scrapbook contains newspaper clippings regarding the Daughters of the American Revolution. It should also be noted that there are also newspaper clippings relating to her engagement and marriage to Ben King Espey.

The tax list, located in folder 13 of box 4, contains an original copy of the list of taxable property and polls of the 12th civil district of Rutherford County, Tennessee, for 1872.

The tax receipts, located in folder 14 of box 4, contain the property tax receipts of Mrs. A. J. Hembree from 1920-1926.

The teacher's contract, located in folder 15 of box 4, contains the teacher's contract between the Davidson County Board of Education and Mary Mourning Windrow Balch (Mrs. Eugene Jerome Balch). It is dated, August 30, 1954.

The voter registration and membership cards, located in folder 16 of box 4, contain two voter registration cards and a membership card to the Old Hickory (30th) Division Association for Robert D. Balch, Sr.

The wedding planning materials, located in folder 17 of box 4, contain various bridal magazine articles, a 1957 edition of Today's Bride from Cain-Sloan Co., a 1957 edition of Modern Bride's Complete Honeymoon Information from Hotels to Wardrobe, a Wedding Work-Note booklet for wedding planning by the editors of Modern Bride and a bridal shower game titled The Flower Wedding.

Box 5 contains three Holy Bibles. The Bibles belonged to Mary Wade, the Balch family and the Windrow family. The Windrow family Bible is the only dated Bible in the group. It is dated, 1883. The Bibles have some birth and death information for various members of the family written inside.

Over-sized folder 6 contains a certificate of inclusion for Mae Windrow Espey from the American Bicentennial Research Institute, a magazine page photograph of Mae Windrow Espey and two unknown Daughters of the American Revolution members, a membership certificate from the Daughters of the American Revolution for Mae Windrow Espey and two copies of the blue prints for the Mae Windrow Espey house.

Boxes 7-9 contain photographs. Please see the Container List for a complete inventory of the photographs contained in these boxes.

Box 10 contains a photograph scrapbook. The scrapbook contains 23 photographs. The scrapbook is dated, December 18, 1955. The inscription on the inside cover of the scrapbook suggests that the pictures in the scrapbook are of the 50th wedding anniversary of John and Zippy. The inscription is signed, Edwin and Elizabeth.

Boxes 11-13 contain photograph negatives. Please see the Container List for a complete inventory of the photograph negatives contained in these boxes.

One book has been removed from the collection and a copy of the book may be found in the Library. The book is I'll Try Anything Twice by Fred Russell, 1945.
