

State of Tennessee
Department of State
Tennessee State Library and Archives
403 Seventh Avenue North
Nashville, Tennessee 37243-0312

CATLETT, JOHN A.
PAPERS
1863-[1917-1919]-1919

Processed by:

C. Kenneth Fieth

Accession Number: 1989.034
Location: VII-D-3, Top

INTRODUCTION

The John A. Catlett Papers, 1863-1909, are centered around the World War I military service of John A. Catlett, Clarksville, Montgomery County, Tennessee. The John A. Catlett Papers were a gift of Mrs. Ursula Beach, Clarksville, Tennessee.

The materials in this finding aid measures .5 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials.

Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the John A. Catlett Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The John A. Catlett Papers, containing 80 items, spans the period 1863-1919. The collection is composed of clippings, correspondence, maps and military records of Private John A. Catlett's service as an ambulance driver in the American Field Service during World War I.

CONTAINER LIST

Folder:

1. Clippings – World War I, 1919
2. Correspondence – Mrs. F. M. Catlett; Marge Catlett, n.d.; Jehu Catlett, n.d.; A. H. Patch, uncle of John A. Catlett, n.d.; Mare, _____, n.d.; Telegram in French, 1919; Letter to troops from the commander, 7th regiment; Postcards, military subjects, n.d.
3. Legal documents – Agreement for hire of a negro man, John Catlett, December 1863
4. Military records – Bills and receipts, 1917-1919
5. Military records – Maps, Western Front, 1918
6. Military records – Memorabilia and awards, 1917-1918
7. Military records – Passes, military, 1917-1918
8. Military records – Transportation receipts, 1917-1918
9. Obituary – A. H. Patch of Clarksville, Tennessee, n.d.

Oversize folder – VII-D-top

Newspapers, 1918-1919

The Radiator, December 25, 1918, February 6, 1919, February 13, 1919

Le Journal, October 7, 1918

Le Matin, October 1, 1918