INTRODUCTION

The papers of Benjamin Franklin Cheatham (1820-1886), Captain, 1846, and Colonel, 1847, Mexican War; Major-General, Tennessee Militia, 1853; Brigadier-General, Confederate Army, 1861; Major-General, Confederate Army, 1862; Supt. Of Tennessee Prisons, 1874-1878; and postmaster of Nashville, Tennessee, 1886, were placed on deposit by Mrs. Telfair Hodgson of Sewanee, Tennessee, the daughter of General Cheatham.

The materials in this finding aid measure .42 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Benjamin Franklin Cheatham Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The papers of Benjamin Franklin Cheatham composed of approximately 300 items contain correspondence, Civil War Military reports, Civil War military maps, Mexican War muster rolls, a Mexican War diary, a journal of farming activities in the 1880s, organization and accounts dealing with Tennessee State Prisons, and some statistical data regarding the rainfall during the years 1882-1885.

The earliest letters were written by Andrew Jackson and John Tyler to T.H. Williams in the years 1842 and 1843 respectively. The letter of John Tyler is especially interesting in its references to the African slave trade and the arming of merchant vessels to prevent search and seizure by England.

The Civil War correspondence is composed of sixteen family letters and twenty-six letters and reports from the following officers: General Braxton Bragg, General H.D. Clayton, Major E.S. Gulley, Colonel Thomas Herndon, Colonel T.F. Hunley, General H.R. Jackson, Colonel Brooks Jones, Captain J.C. Kendrick, General James Longstreet, Colonel J.H. Minton, General A.J. Smith, and Captain R.K. Wells.

There are eight letters from Joseph E. Johnston during the years after the Civil War 1887-1886. One of the most interesting items in the collection is the little diary kept by General Cheatham during the Mexican War. He was a captain at the beginning of the War and became a colonel before the war was over. The complete original roster of the 3rd Regiment of Tennessee Volunteers, a very valuable document, is among the papers.

Correspondence for the years 1875-1878 is addressed to General Cheatham as Superintendent of State Prisons. Sixteen letters for this period concern such matters as the convict lease system, the payment of prison guards, and allegations concerning the maltreatment of prisoners.
