INTRODUCTION

The papers of Finis James Garrett (1875-1956), Democratic Representatives in Congress, 1905-1929; Judge of United States Court of Customs and Patents Appeals, 1929-1956; were given to the Manuscript Section by Bethel College, McKenzie, Tennessee, in return for which they are to receive a microfilm copy of the papers. The papers and a number of books were given to the College by Garrett who was an alumnus of the school.

The materials in this finding aid measures 4.2 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Garrett papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Garrett Papers, approximately 3000 items, are composed of the correspondence of Finis James Garrett, both incoming and outgoing, for the years 1905-1907 with some letters for 1916. This correspondence seems to be complete for the years 1905-1907 when Garrett was first elected to Congress but, with the exception of a few letters for 1916, the later years are missing.

Requests for recommendations, for speaking engagements, for help with debates, for free seed distributed by the Department of Agriculture, for help in obtaining indemnity for stolen or damaged property during the Civil War, and for help in obtaining pensions, make up a large portion of the correspondence. Another large portion deals with political subjects.

The outgoing mail has been arranged in a chronological order, and the incoming mail is alphabetically arranged by author. An index has been made of the more important correspondents which includes E. W. Carmack, Caruthers Ewing, W. W. House, R. T. Lewis (Garrett's law partner), John W. Morton, Malcolm R. Patterson, Thomas and Wardlaw Steele, and a number of law firms such as Moyers and Consaul, of Washington, D. C.
