INTRODUCTION

This finding aid focuses on the Robert Hartsell Gray (1860-1939) and Micajah Watkins King Gray (1862-1914) Lineage Genealogical Materials, 1886-1994 as compiled by Margaret Travis Gray (1923-) of Louisville, Kentucky.

Consisting of six volumes, the collection provides genealogical information on the Gray and King families and their kindred lines of Loudoun County, Virginia and Sullivan County, Tennessee. The King family collateral lines are: Anderson, Baxter, Boyd, Breden, Buchanan, Campbell, Dysart, Goodson, Herndon, Lanier, Lawson, McClain/McClearn, McIlivaine, Ray, Rhea, Riddle, Ryburn, Scott, Stuart, Watkins, and Williams. The Gray kindred families include: Buchanan, Campbell, Cowan, Cox, Craig, Davis, Hartsell, Hay, Martin, McCain, McCoy, Owens, Pluda, Pastro, Rutledge, Tate, and Thompson.

The materials covered in this finding aid measure 1.5 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Gray-King Lineage Genealogical Materials may be made for scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Gray-King Lineage Genealogical Materials compiled by Margaret Travis Gray, containing approximately 1200 items, span the period 1886-1994. The collection is composed of copies of biographies, cemetery records, census records, clippings, correspondence, genealogical data (family group sheets), land records (deeds), legal documents (wills), maps, obituaries, and photographs.

The genealogical materials relate to the ancestors of William Ryburn Gray, Sr., (1924-) and allied families of Loudoun and Washington Counties, Virginia, and Fayette and Sullivan Counties, Tennessee.

The collection was received from the donor in notebook binders with a Table of Contents and an index in each binder. This arrangement has been maintained in the processing of the collection.
