SCOPE AND CONTENT

The John T. (John Terrill) Majors Papers, Addition, 1942-2007, were a gift from John T. Majors of Pittsburgh, Pa. and Knoxville, Tenn. The collection consists of 37.5 cubic feet and is arranged in alphabetical order by document type. There are no restrictions on this collection. The collection primarily consists of correspondence, photographs, scrapbooks, and various football-related items from the University of Tennessee and the University of Pittsburgh.

Large portions of the collection are letters from fans during his tenure as head football coach at the University of Tennessee. Majors include a copy of his response in most instances. The collection also contains numerous photographs of Majors focusing on the years 1990-2007 as well as numerous football related materials such as football programs, plays, media guides, and game day materials.

Also included are newspaper clippings, plaques, and Majors' personal daily calendars from 1968-1996, along with several scrapbooks. Pages were kept in original order and the folders are numbered accordingly. Lastly, there are eight negatives which are located in the vault.

For the audio/video/film portion of the collection, please see the separate description and contents at the end of this finding aid.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

University of Tennessee All-American football player and coach John T. Majors was born May 21, 1935, in Lynchburg, the son of Shirley and Elizabeth Majors. Shirley Majors coached football, first as a high school coach and then at the University of the South. All five of his sons played college football: three at the University of Tennessee, one at Florida State, and one at the University of the South. John Majors graduated from Huntland High School in 1953, where he played for his father and scored an astonishing 565 points. Majors then enrolled at the University of Tennessee and became an All-American tailback under Coach Bowden Wyatt. The 1956 Volunteer team won the Southeastern Conference Championship. That year, Majors was named the SEC's Most Valuable Player and made every All-American team. He was runner-up to Notre Dame's Paul Hornung for the Heisman Trophy.

After graduation in 1957, Majors joined the UT coaching staff as a student coach. In 1960 he served as an assistant coach at Mississippi State University before joining the coaching staff of Frank Broyles at the University of Arkansas in 1964. There he met fellow staff member Doug Dickey. In 1968 Majors became head coach at Iowa State, where he led the Cyclones to two postseason bowl games and was named Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1971. In 1973 Majors accepted the head coaching position at the University of Pittsburgh. When he arrived at Pitt, the Panthers had won only one game the previous season. That fall, Majors produced a 6-5-1 record, followed by a 7-4 record in 1974 and an 8-4 record in 1975. The 1976 team, with Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett, won the national championship.

In 1973 the Football Writers Association and the Walter Camp Foundation honored Majors as National Coach of the Year, the same year his father, Shirley Majors, won honors as Small College Coach of the Year. In 1976 both the Football Writers Association and the American Football Coaches Association named him National Coach of the Year. Majors is a charter inductee into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. He was selected to the All-SEC team picked by sports writers and broadcasters for the years 1950 through 1974.

In 1977 Majors returned to the University of Tennessee as head coach. He first led the Vols to the Astro Bluebonnet Bowl against Purdue in 1979, and thereafter, Majors and the Vols seldom missed a postseason bowl. At Tennessee Majors posted 115 SEC victories, a feat which placed him among the top ten all-time SEC coaches for wins, and UT won three SEC championships during his tenure.

In 1992, Majors had heart bypass surgery and was replaced by Coach Phillip Fulmer; he then returned to his second home of Pittsburgh to once again coach the Panthers. Throughout the mid-1990s Majors tried to recreate the magic of 1976 at Pitt but achieved little success. He retired from coaching following the 1996 NCAA season and served at Pitt in the position of Special Assistant to the Athletic Director and Chancellor until the summer of 2007. A room on the second floor of the Pittsburgh Athletic Association adjacent to Pitt's campus is dedicated to him and displays memorabilia from his career.

Majors is married to Chattanooga native Mary Lynn Barnwell Majors. They are the parents of two children, a son, John Ireland, and a daughter, Mary Elizabeth. Majors and his wife, Mary Lynn now reside in Knoxville, Tennessee.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Consists of audio and video material related to the life of John T. Majors. Included are numerous CDs and DVDs, VHS videocassettes, some open reel audiotapes, and some 16mm films. The CDs consist of items related to Coach Majors as a football coach, including numerous interviews with Coach Majors. Of particular interest is an interview conducted on December 15, 1969 on the Dear Old Dad Parker broadcast in Nashville on a potential move to the University of Tennessee. There is also audio of the funeral service for Jim Dyar, a former football coach. Another item of interest is an interview with Coach Majors conducted by Jimmy Hyams with WNRK Radio in Knoxville. Also included among audio items is a radio broadcast from Jan. 1, 1972 entitled What It Was to Win, which was a recap of the 1971 Iowa State football season.

Digital photographs in the collection include a photograph of a painting depicting Johnny Majors as a player, photographs taken at an ice cream social in Lynchburg in 2005, photographs of a golf match, Pitt vs. Penn State University from 2007, and photographs from the University of Pittsburgh Mercury Awards presentation in 2007.

DVDs in the collection include a program entitled Geico Presents College Football's 10 Greatest Running Backs, produced by CBS Sports. John Majors is seen making comments on Tony Dorsett and Doak Walker. Also included are broadcasts of the Tennessee-LSU game from 1992, and the Tennessee-Notre Dame game from 1990.

Additionally, there are 2 special programs on DVD, 22 Straight, Arkansas Football 1963-1965, which tells the story of the University of Arkansas winning 22 straight games, and The 1985 Sugar Vols, 20th Anniversary, which includes highlights of the 1985 season as well as a complete broadcast of the 1986 Sugar Bowl game. Interviews with various players and coaches are included on the DVDs.

VHS videocassettes are also included in the collection. One is a program entitled A Century of Cyclone Football, which was produced in 1992 and includes Johnny Majors. Another program is titled Beyond the Glory, Tony Dorsett, which also includes comments from Johnny Majors. The Blue/Grey All-Star game, broadcasted by ABC Sports, is also included from 12/25/1994 with Coach Majors serving as coach of the Blue team. Other items on tape are a Boy Scouts Luncheon in Pulaski, TN in 2004 which featured Johnny Majors as a speaker, the Covington Tennessee Gridiron Association Banquet from 1997 which featured Johnny Majors as a speaker, an Iowa State University 1999 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony featuring Johnny Majors as an inductee, several interviews with Coach Majors including an interview titled Johnny Majors Speaks Out that was shown on WKXT-TV in Knoxville regarding Majors' ouster as head coach at U.T., the NFC Defensive Player of the Year 26th Annual 101 Banquet where Johnny Majors made introductory comments on award winner Reggie White, several Nike Football Coaches Trips, Panther Football with Head Coach Johnny Majors and hosted by Bill Hillgrove with WTAE-TV in Pittsburgh from 1995, a program title Paths of Glory, which details the first 100 years of Pittsburgh Panther football and includes a segment with Johnny Majors, a copy of the 1988 Peach Bowl game which included U.T. and Illinois, several University of Pittsburgh football games from the 1993 season, which was Coach Majors first year back as head coach, and several episodes of The Johnny Majors Show from 1993 and 1994.

There are also some open reel audio items included in the collection. Include is the Dear Old Dad Parker Broadcast from 1969 and KRNT Football remote Broadcast of the Iowa State vs. Kansas State game from 1970. Both of these items have a cd copy included in the collection.

Also included in the collection are some 16mm films. One film is labeled Clinic Film, Coach Majors, which depicts various plays from several different U.T. football games. The other film is labeled Coach Majors, 1982, University of Tennessee Deep Passing Game. This film includes passing plays from various games from the 1979-1982 seasons.

These materials serve as a great addition to the existing John Majors collection. The John Terrill Majors Papers collection included a/v materials that depicted Majors as both a player and coach, but the John Terrill Majors Papers--Addition collection focuses on Majors as a coach.
