INTRODUCTION

This finding aid focuses on the papers of Judge Jerry Scott, Waynesboro, Tennessee, attorney, trial judge and Justice of the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals. The collection spans the years 1970 through 1995, although the bulk of the collection is concerned with his tenure on the Court of Criminal Appeals, (1979-1995). The Judge Jerry Scott Papers is composed of approximately 48 cubic feet of material. The collection is arranged according to series, keeping both the original office arrangement, and corresponding with his judicial career. Within each series is included: correspondence, court cases, subject files and several miscellaneous items. The collection was presented to the Tennessee State Library and Archives by Judge Jerry Scott, Waynesboro, Tennessee. There are no restrictions on the material. Single photocopies of unpublished materials in the Judge Jerry Scott Papers may be made for individual or scholarly research.

Jerry Scott was born November 11, 1941, at Nashville, Tennessee, but spent his childhood in Dickson, Tennessee. Judge Scott received his undergraduate degree at Austin Peay State College in 1962, where he majored in American history. He was graduated with the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from Vanderbilt University on May 30, 1965. He was admitted to the Tennessee Bar, August 19, 1965, and licensed to practice before the Supreme Court of Tennessee on September 8, 1965.

Judge Scott served as Assistant Judge Advocate at Oxnard Air Force Base, California, from 1965 to 1967. From 1967 until his release in 1969, he served as Staff Judge Advocate at Oxnard Air Force Base, California, where he acted as legal advisor to the Commander. He was then assigned as an Assistant Staff Judge Advocate at Arnold Engineering Development Center, Arnold Air Force Base, Tennessee, until August 1, 1980, when he was assigned to the General Litigation Division, Headquarters United States Air Force, Washington D.C. In June, 1983, Scott was assigned to the First Circuit of the United States Air Force Worldwide Trial Judiciary at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington D.C., as one of the first three reserve military judges in the United States Air Force. As the program grew, he was later assigned additional duties as the Chief Reserve Military Judge of the Air Force. In 1992, he was commissioned as a Brigadier General in the United States Air Force Reserves.

On February 5, 1973, Judge Scott was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Judge W.A. Harwell, of the Eleventh Judicial District in Tennessee. The Eleventh Judicial Circuit covered Giles, Lawrence, Maury, and Wayne Counties. In the circuit court he heard both criminal and civil cases in both law and equity.

In 1979, Judge Scott was appointed by Governor Lamar Alexander to serve as Judge of the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals. The Court of Criminal Appeals is one of Tennessee's two Intermediate Appellate Courts established by the Tennessee General Assembly. The Court of Criminal Appeals has jurisdiction to hear felony and misdemeanor appeals from general trial courts as well as post conviction petitions. The Court of Criminal Appeals has nine members, who sit in rotating panels of three at Knoxville, Jackson, and Nashville. Appeals from decisions of the Court of Criminal Appeals go to the Tennessee Supreme Court by permission to appeal except in capital cases where the appeal is automatic. After his retirement from the court in 1995, Scott returned to private legal practice at Waynesboro and Murfreesboro, Tennessee. He died on March 5, 2017, in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Judge Jerry Scott Papers containing approximately 48 cubic feet of material span the period 1970 through 1995, although the bulk of the material is concentrated in the years 1979 through 1995. The collection is composed of correspondence, court cases, subject files and several miscellaneous items. The collection is divided into three series, corresponding to original office arrangement and following the career of Judge Scott. Series I and II was processed by Gregory G. Poole, while Series III was processed by James Castro.

Series I is concerned with his records as trial judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit. It is composed of correspondence, court records and subject files. There is a large amount of information concerning the four county courts (Giles, Lawrence, Maury and Wayne County) in the first series.

Series II, Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals comprises the largest amount of material in the collection. Like Series I, it is composed of correspondence, court cases and subject files. The correspondence is primarily court related, and a good deal is correspondence between the various nine judges on the Court of Criminal Appeals. Much of this correspondence is routine, and covers the day-to-day operations of the courts. The court cases are those cases heard by all the judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals from 1979 through 1995. Each file is composed of a photocopy of the docket, notes taken during the appeal process, and the opinions issued by the judges. Occasionally there is correspondence between the judges discussing issues in the particular cases. The court cases are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the defendant. If there are multiple defendants both names are listed. The date the case was heard is also given. The court cases provide the most important element in the whole of the collection in that a researcher may trace the steps taken in the appeal process, and get an excellent view of how the court system works in Tennessee. The subject files are primarily composed of information concerning the various committees, boards, and seminars in which Scott served while a member of the Court. Inter-office memorandum, correspondence, notes, minutes, and programs may be included within each file.

Series III is mostly comprised of records and information relating to Judge Scott's activities while he was a member of the United States Air Force Reserve Judge Advocacy. Types of documents found in this series include: correspondence, cards, meeting agendas, and minutes, Judge Scott's handwritten notes, Air Force newsletters, and numerous policy and subject files. Also, included in this collection are several court martial cases in which Scott presided as military judge. Of particular interest may be the records concerning the implementation of the "Don't ask Don't Tell" program in the United States military. Judge Scott retained numerous records on this specific policy and its legal ramifications. Much of the debate leading up to the implementation of the policy is also present in this collection. These records can be found in Judge Scott's correspondence and policy papers from 1991-1995.

Series IV consists of various photographs, which are identified in this Finding Aid. Most are undated, though the few that have dates indicate they are from the 1970's.

Series V consists of additional materials that have been discovered for this collection and have been placed in boxes 49 and 50 at the end of the collection. The additional materials contain a biographical sketch of Jerry Scott, some correspondence, as well a significant number of folders of subject files. These materials are available as original records only as they have not been microfilmed.

In the completeness of the collection, the Judge Jerry Scott Papers may serve as the Tennessee State Library and Archives' largest collection of court records outside of the State Supreme Court Records. In the future, the collection may be used by legal historians to trace the history of the court system in Tennessee, as well as the genealogist searching for the errant ancestor in the many court records.
