Administrative/Biographical History

The “Looking Back at Tennessee” Photograph Collection was a Homecoming '86 project of the Tennessee State Library and Archives. After advanced publicity, staff from the Tennessee State Library and Archives visited the county seats of thirty-nine counties and selected photographs from private collections for copying. The owners of the photographs provided information about the images, such as subject, date, location, classification, and significance.

Organization/Arrangement of Materials

Arranged alphabetically by county of acquisition. Each photograph bears the county abbreviation and a number. Numbering is consecutive within each county.

Conditions of Access and Use

Restrictions on Access:

No restrictions.

Restrictions on Use and Reproduction:

While the Tennessee State Library and Archives houses an item, it does not necessarily hold the copyright on the item, nor may it be able to determine if the item is still protected under current copyright law.
