INTRODUCTION

The Madie N. Webb Papers, ca. 1700-1970, were received by the State Library and Archives on April 25, 1972. They were donated by Mrs. W. H. Davis of Wartrace, Tennessee.

The collection consists of one archives box of material, and four oversize documents. There are no restrictions on the collection, and copies of items in the collection can be made for the purpose of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Madie N. Webb Papers, ca. 1700-1970, consists of correspondence, genealogical data, photographs, newspaper clippings, a will, a contract, an account, a bill of sale, and a recipe.

Most of the correspondence is addressed to Madie N. Webb of Nashville, Tennessee, and concerns genealogy. There are a few letters dated in the mid-1800s written by members of the Wyche family, the Pebbles family, and the Nuckolls family. These letters contain mostly family news.

The major part of the collection contains genealogical material predominantly for the Fletcher, Garrett, Klyce (Clyce), Nuckolls, Pattillo, Sandidge, Taylor, Terry, Wyche, and Young families. These families are located primarily in Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, and Missouri.

Legal documents in the collection are the Will of John Milton Nuckolls, and a contract for John F. Wyche and Company, 1808.
