After the war, Murray entered law practice in Jackson, Tennessee. He was elected District Attorney for the Twelfth District Circuit of Tennessee in 1922, and served until September of 1933, when he resigned to accept the a position with the U.S. Solicitor's Office in the Post Office Department in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Murray was a delegate to the Democratic National Conventions of 1928, 1932 and 1936. He also served as Chairman of the Madison County Executive Committee and was a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

While in office, Congressman Murray served as Chairman of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee. He was also active in fighting against "Socialized Medicine", the Brannan Farm Plan, and the Civil Rights Program.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The papers of Thomas Jefferson Murray (1894-1971), Democratic United States Representative from Jackson, Tennessee, consist of approximately 15,000 items. This collection spans the years 1944-1966, with a few letters dating back to 1936.

The majority of the collection consists of correspondence, which includes Personal, political and legislative issues. In his capacity as a U.S. Congressman the collection also includes many invitations, birthday and Christmas cards, and thank you notes. Of particular interest is a letter from J. Edgar Hoover expressing his regret at Mr. Murray's loss to Ray Blanton in the 1966 election.

Representative Murray was very active in Veterans Affairs especially claims and benefits. In addition, Murray was a member of the House Post Office and Post Roads Committee. Since the committee was responsible for Post Office legislation and legislation concerning the Civil Service System, much information was collected on pay increases for classified federal employees and employee benefits.
