INTRODUCTION

The Round Lick Primitive Baptist Church minute books, 1826-1955, were loaned to the Tennessee State Library and Archives by Glen M. Beard of Watertown, Tennessee. Mr. Beard is the great-great-great grandson of Sion Bass (1802-1884) who pastored the Round Lick Church for 45 years (see on microfilm a story by Mr. Beard titled, "The Story of My Antique Maple Bed."). In addition to the three minute books, there are three photographs that complement the antique bed story. After filming, the materials were returned to Mr. Beard.

There are no restrictions on the use of the materials and copies may be made for individual or scholarly use.
