INTRODUCTION

The Sloan-Toon-Howerton Family Papers center around the Sloan, Toon, and Howerton families of Williamson and Davidson counties, Tennessee. Also included is the genealogical correspondence and research of J.D. Howerton of Houston, Texas. The papers were given to the Tennessee State Library and Archives by Miss Emma I. Sloan, Nashville, Tennessee. The collection occupies 6.0 linear feet of shelf space and numbers approximately 3,600 items.

Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Sloan-Toon-Howerton Family Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Sloan-Toon-Howerton Family Papers consist primarily of the personal and family papers of the Sloan, Toon, and Howerton families of Williamson County, Tennessee and Davidson County, Tennessee. The focal points of the collection are the family of Robert Allen Toon (1823-1910) and his wife Emma Howerton Toon (1840-1917), as well as the family of their eldest daughter Anna Dorcas Toon Sloan (1861-1944) and her husband James Theodore Sloan (1841-1921).

Another significant part of the collection is the genealogical correspondence of J.D. Howerton of Houston, Texas. Mr. Howerton corresponded with Howertons from all over the United States between 1932 and 1951 while attempting to compile genealogical data on all Howerton lines. Among his correspondents was Miss Emma I. Sloan, daughter of Anna Toon Sloan and James Theodore Sloan, and Miss Sloan received the correspondence and genealogical data of J.D. Howerton upon his death.

Emma I. Sloan was also a genealogical researcher and her genealogical correspondence for the years 1933 to 1965 is included in the collection.

Other items of interest in the collection include account books; cards; transcribed church minutes for Little Harpeth Presbyterian Church, Franklin, Tennessee; clippings, including numerous literature and poetry clippings collected from Nashville-area newspapers by Ann Turner Howerton (1804-1882) in the 1840s and 1850s; photostats of Howerton, Cabaniss, and Allen family documents used by J.D. Howerton in his research; photographs; postcards; scrapbooks; and family Bibles.

General correspondence, which includes the personal and family correspondence of the Sloans, Toons, and Howertons, is arranged alphabetically by sender and is indexed at the end of this register. The two sets of genealogical correspondence are arranged alphabetically by the name of the correspondents of Mr. Howerton or Miss Sloan and are then arranged chronologically (e.g. in the J.D. Howerton genealogical correspondence, all letters between J.D. Howerton and Robert W. Neathery are interfiled under Neathery's name and arranged by date). Each of these sets of correspondence is also indexed.

A number of letters to and from men and women serving in the American military are included in the general correspondence. World War I letters include those written by Marion R. (Billy) Wenz, Frank S. Whitman, James Theodore (Hink) Sloan, Jr., David Toon Sloan, Edward Buford Higginbotham, Wallace Higginbotham, Sara Toon Lane to her son David Toon Sloan, Ephreme and Genevieve Moyon, and Warren Barnes Sloan. World War II letters include those written by Douglas Conners, May L. Gunn, Lucille C. Meek, Enid Mutch, David Toon Ozanne, John Sloan Ozanne, Porter Lewis Ozanne, Sallie Sloan Ozanne, and Victor Whitaker.

The Sloan-Toon-Howerton Family Papers will be useful for both genealogical researchers and those interested in interpreting the social history of Middle Tennessee families for the period 1865-1950.
