SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Woodmen of the World Collection, containing 21 volumes and spanning the years 1911-1932, consists of original ledgers, account books, meeting minutes, and collection forms of the Old Hickory Camp 295, Nashville, Tennessee. In addition, the collection contains Camp Clerks Monthly Report, Sovereign Camp of the Woodmen of the World.

The collection centers around the Woodmen of the World, a fraternal benefit life insurance society founded in 1890. Membership ledgers constitute the bulk of the collection, 16 volumes, and cover a wide time-span, 1911-12, and 1916-1932. There are three volumes of membership dues account books covering the years 1919-1931.

Also included in the collection are meeting minutes, Old Hickory Camp 295; Camp Clerk's Monthly Report, Sovereign Camp of the Woodmen of the World, 1925; and collections forms, 1930.
