Date Completed: September 30, 1988

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Alcoholic Beverage Commission was the overseer of both the wholesale and retail alcohol distributing businesses in Tennessee. They also acted as a public information agency on several occasions. The ABC was also active as a regulator of alcohol related advertisement. Licenses for distribution and sale of alcoholic beverages were obtained through the ABC. The agency handled a wide variety of requests and complaints, as evidenced by this collection of correspondence. This collection includes correspondence from the years 1966-1968. Records were disposed of after filming according to State approved Methods.
